

Want beautiful music for your wedding or special event?

Look no further than Quinn Fitzpatrick....

Quinn Fitzpatrick is an eclectic guitarist who draws upon folk, contemporary acoustic, celtic, country, pop, rock, blues, hip-hop, r&b, latin, bossa nova and jazz styles. He plays tasteful instrumental arrangements of classic tunes from Bach to Zeppelin as well as original compositions.

Influences include Tuck Andress, Tommy Emmanuel, Antonio Carlos Jobim, Andy Mckee, and Jimmy Page.

Quinn specializes in creating and playing solo guitar arrangements of your favorite songs. Providing the perfect soundtrack to your special event!

To hear Quinn's music for yourself, come see him playing live at the Whidbey Island Art Gallery during Langley's first Saturday Artwalks or first Fridays at Artworks Gallery in Greenbank Farm. He is also a regular musician at the Bayview Farmer's Market, Spoiled Dog Winery, Choochokam Arts Festival, the South Whidbey Concerts in the Park series and the annual Weddings on Whidbey and Events tour.

Quinn has played with a variety of musicians for over a decade opening for artists such as Kenny Chesney, Aaron Tippin, Rodney Crowell and Jimmy Smith. After a successful career both playing and teaching guitar in the San Francisco Bay Area, he relocated to Whidbey Island, WA to focus on composing, recording and promoting his solo fingerstyle acoustic guitar music. Described as a "poet of sound" and a "guitar wizard", Quinn's music covers a wide spectrum of emotions and styles.

Quinn also teaches guitar on Whidbey Island, in the Seattle area and Online.
